5. GUIDING PRINCIPLES FOR REVIEW OF RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

5.1 Overall

To review a Related Party Transaction, the Board or Audit Committee will be provided with all the relevant information pertaining to the Related Party Transaction, including the terms of the transaction, the purpose and potential benefits to the Company of the transaction and any other information regarding the Related Party Transaction or the Related Party in the context of the proposed transaction, as may be considered material by the Audit Committee or Board or shareholders, as may be applicable in the light of circumstances of a particular transaction.

In determining whether approval needs to be accorded to a Related Party Transaction, the Board or Audit Committee will consider the following factors:

- whether the terms of the Related Party Transaction are fair to the Company and would apply on the same basis if the transaction did not involve a Related Party;
- Whether there are any compelling business reasons for the Company to enter into the Related Party Transaction and the nature of alternative transactions, if any;
- Whether the Related Party Transaction would present an improper conflict of interest for any Director or Key Managerial Personnel of the Company, taking into account the size of the transaction, the overall interest of the Director, Key Managerial Personnel or other Related Party, the direct or indirect nature of the Director, Key Managerial Personnel or other Related Party's interest in the transaction and the ongoing nature of any proposed relationship and any other factors the Board or Audit Committee deem fit to consider.

The Audit Committee or Board, in its sole discretion, may impose such conditions as it deems appropriate on the Company or the Related Party in connection with approval of the Related Party Transaction. Further, the Audit Committee or Board reserves the authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of this Policy.

5.2 Guidelines on Determination of Arm's length nature of the Related Party Transactions

As a matter of prudence, the following guidelines are issued:

1. Any single transaction with Related Party in excess of Rs.25 Crore be principally informed to the Audit Committee members indicating the salient features of the transaction and how the transaction is at "Arm's Length".

At the time of determining the Arm's Length Basis of price charged for the Related Party Transaction, the Audit Committee shall inter- alia take into consideration the following:

- (i) Permissible methods of Arm's Length pricing as per Applicable Law including such prices where the benefits of safe harbour is available under Applicable Law.
- (ii) For the said purposes the Audit Committee shall be entitled to rely on professional opinion in this regard.

The Company relies on professionals and experts in the field of Company Law, Accounting and Taxation to review, certify and report on transactions, including those with Related Parties.

2. The management of the Company should ensure periodically that all transactions with Related Parties – be they on a single source basis or otherwise – are on an "Arm's Length" basis.

6. DISCLOSURES

- The Company shall disclose this Policy on its website and a web link thereto shall be provided in the Annual Report.
- The Company shall keep one or more registers giving separately the particulars of all contracts or arrangements with any Related Party.
